THE PASSING OF CONGRESSMAN
HENRY HYDE

---

HON. JERRY F. COSTELLO

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 4, 2007

Mr. COSTELLO. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the passing of our colleague from Illinois, Henry J. Hyde. Congressman Hyde served in the House of Representatives for over 30 years and his respect for this body and the United States of America was a hallmark of his career. Volunteering to serve in the Navy during World War II, he played basketball at Georgetown, graduated from Loyola law school and eventually chaired both the Judiciary and International Relations Committees, presiding over both with the same dignity and eloquence with which he treated all floor debate.

Henry was perhaps best known as Congress's leading voice for protecting the unborn. During his first term, he was successful in enacting the "Hyde amendment," which outlawed the Federal funding of abortion in most cases, and still stands today. But what stands out equally to many of us is the way he handled this advocacy, always arguing passionately, always arguing forcefully, but always arguing his beliefs with a grace and tact that provided for an honest exchange on the most contentious of issues. This is a great lesson for all of us today, that even when we disagree, we should debate the issues on their merits, with the highest levels of decorum.

Madam Speaker, Henry Hyde was an influential presence in the House of Representatives and both national and Illinois politics. He will not soon be forgotten, and I send my condolences to his family.

HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 4, 2007

Mr. TOWNS. Madam Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the work and achievements of Paul Ajlouny. Paul was born in 1959 in Detroit, Michigan. He moved to Hempstead, Long Island in 1965.

Paul graduated from Chaminade High School in Mineola, New York in 1977. He earned a Bachelor's of Science Degree from American University of Beirut with a double major of Biology and Chemistry, graduating with honors. Afterwards he attended American University of Beirut's Medical School.

Paul became Vice-President of Export for Omar International Grain and Trading Company in 1983. In 1989, he left there and became a Hospital Administrator. Following his stint at the hospital, he decided to return to college and enrolled in St. John's Law School. He graduated from St. John's in 1999.

Paul now has a private practice specializing in personal injury law. His firm serves poor and disadvantaged clients throughout the Boroughs of Brooklyn and Queens. He is a member of the Nassau County Bar Association; the Trial Lawyers of America; The New York State Bar Association; and the American Bar Association.

Madam Speaker, I would like to recognize Paul Ajlouny, Esq. for his contributions to our community and for providing his legal expertise to those who need it most.

Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues to join me in paying tribute to Paul Ajlouny.

HONORING SCOTT ADAMCHESKI

---

HON. MARK UDALL

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 4, 2007

Mr. UDALL of Colorado. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Mr. Scott Adamcheski for his exemplary courage. Scott Adamcheski is a fireman with Station No. 5 in Boulder, Colorado. On October 26, 2007 he was one of a group of firefighters who responded to a call at the Gold Run Apartment Complex.

Upon arrival Mr. Adamcheski searched one of the apartment buildings for anyone who may have been trapped by the ensuing flames. Mr. Jordan Brooks, a senior at the University of Colorado, cried for help as he lay choking on the 3rd floor. Mr. Adamcheski found the student, immediately called for backup and brought Mr. Brooks to safety through a window he had to break.

This is just one example of the risks firefighters take every day. Mr. Adamcheski's bravery was called to my attention and while I am sure he takes his actions in stride as the kind of thing he and his fellow firefighters contend with routinely, and as a part of their professional training, I think the rest of us marvel at the personal courage it takes to face fires and rescue people. In this spirit, I want to acknowledge the other firefighters at Station No. 5 in Boulder and all the firefighters in America who risk their lives us to keep our communities safe.

As a prime example of the courage and heroism that firefighters exhibit every day, and to recognize Scott Adamcheski for his service, I ask my colleagues to join with me in thanking him, and acknowledging the efforts of firefighters across America.

IN MEMORY OF GARY GALLOWAY

---

HON. ELTON GALLEGLY

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 4, 2007

Mr. GALLEGLY. Madam Speaker, I rise in memory of Gary Galloway, who passed away November 21 at the age of 56.

Gary Galloway was a detective at the Simi Valley, California, Police Department, which is an understatement of the important work he performed there. For 21 of the 29 years Gary served the Simi Valley community, he investigated child sexual abuse cases and other crimes against persons.

Twenty-one years is a long time for a detective to investigate child sex abuse cases. Most officers suffer from an understandable burnout confronting the worse a criminal can do to a child. But Gary was passionate about protecting children. He was equally a skilled and hardworking detective.

Countless lives have been protected because of Gary's diligence and professionalism. Equally, many individuals were cleared of false allegations because of Gary's dedication to the truth.

I met Gary when I was elected to the Simi Valley City Council and he was a new officer, and got to know him through many ride-alongs with him on patrol. I followed his career through my years as mayor and as congressman. He was a respected friend who I visited with just a few weeks ago during the Simi Valley Days Parade.

Gary served as a reserve officer before joining the Police Department full time in 1980. He quickly made his mark as a patrol officer and a field training officer. Then he joined the detective ranks and was assigned to child sex abuse cases. He never looked back.
